

ISSU
IRISH SECOND-LEVEL
STUDENTS' UNION

"Learning about racism and its effects on people is so important if we want to properly tackle racism in Ireland. I always say, in a world where you can be anything, be kind. Unfortunately, we can't legislate for kindness, but we can educate for it. Learning about the experiences of others is key in ensuring this and in combating racism in our schools."

Eileen Flynn -
Senator for Seanad Éireann

RACISM IN SCHOOLS SURVEY 2024 |